NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A Rochester widow, long after receiving aid from the overseer of the poor, was found to own the house in which she lived and had $1500 in a bank.

"Your daughter fell from a boat while drunk, and was drowned," was the sad but true dispatch telegraphed to a clergyman in Omaha.

Bustles having gone out of fashion, a richly dressed women wearing one of great size attracted the attention of the custom officers at Windsor, Canada. It was found to contain tea.

A Kansas City man is hunting a journalist of that city with a pistol. The newspaper chap told him in a burst of confidence on Christmas, that he couldn't put anything handsomer in his wife's stocking than was there already.

Prof. Stephenson of the Hayden surveying party in New Mexico says that the Aztecs are a myth, and that the tribe of Indians known as cliff-dwellers are to be credited with all the romance attaching to the Aztec name.

Venice is to be made accessible to carriages by a bridge from the main land. The city is at present not only frozen up, but is threatened with a want of drinking water, the Tusina and Brenta being covered with two and a half inches of ice. In Sicily the ground is covered with snow.

They were out driving. Said Theodore: "What tree, Angelina, bears the most precious fruit?" Angelina: "Oh! Dory, I can't tell unless it's a cherry tree." Theodore looked unutterable sweetness as he gazed into Angelina's eyes and said: "The axle tree, darling."

Thousands of men are engaged in repairing the embankments of the river Arad, in Hungary. The waters are falling, but the country is a sheet of ice. At Glagovacs eighty and at Belzdrend ninety houses have been carried away, the church and eight houses alone remaining in the latter place.

A correspondent writes the New York Sun that Sir Arthur Guinness was recently incorrectly described as "the great Dublin porter brewer." Within the past year Sir Arthur has sold his interest in the brewery business for $5,000,000, and his celebrated stout is no longer a perennial fountain of gold to him.

Theodore Neusel's love for a St. Louis girl was not returned. Wild with despair, he saturated his clothing with kerosene oil, went to her house, threw himself on his knees at her feet, struck a match, and swore that he would set himself ablaze if she did not promise to marry him. She assented, but only long enough to secure his arrest.

At a recent meeting of the Scottish Food Reform Society, the company, to the number of sixty, sat down to a repast, consisting of six courses—lentil and barley soup, haricot-bean pies, haricot-bean omelets with sauce, hominy pudding, pearl meal pudding, and tapioca and apples. The cost of the whole, exclusive of cooking, came to 3½ d. per head.

The boys in the gallery of the New National Theatre, Philadelphia, began to cough and sneeze. The performance was interrupted by their noise, the rest of the audience hissed, and a policeman was sent to arrest the offenders; but the officers coughed and sneezed too, when they got into the gallery. Somebody had burned peper, and an intermission became necessary.

A man at Alleghany, Pa., had for a guest a twin brother, and the two were so wonderfuly alike that they could hardly be told apart. The host went to a church fair, and replied to every importunity by saying that he had no money then, but would return and buy liberally in the evening. When evening came he induced his brother to go alone to the fair. The result was not enjoyable to the latter.

The reputation for eccentricity which Englishmen always enjoy in the opinion of their neighbors does not seem likely to die out. A son of Albion, during the recent severe weather in Paris, laid a wager of £2000 that he would remain on the top of the Arc de Triomphe for four hours with nothing on but a suit of thin canvas; and he won his bet. The thermometer showed fifteen degrees of cold during sojourn on high.

GENERAL GRANT'S CANDIDACY.

The Portland Oregonian, which is a power in the land of the web-feet, says:

While the country has been most lavish of its manifestations of welcome to General Grant since his return from his trip around the world, enough has transpired to show that thousands who have been profuse in their welcome to him as an ex-president and as a distinguished soldier would hail his candidacy for the chief magistracy of the nation with a far different feeling. And the objections to him are not confined to men who belong to the Democratic party. Aside from those Republicans who have personal favorites, as the Blaine men, the Sherman men, the Washburn men, etc., there are a great many who think that Gen. Grant's plan of conducting the civil service of the government can be much improved.

Again, a very large class of the American people object to anything which indicates that this country requires any personality in its government, and though we may consider it merely as the croakings of pessimists, there are many who openly express the feeling that Gen. Grant's election for a third term would be a step further toward admitting this essentiality of one man to the nation than is advisable or necessary at this time. Many of this class of men would support Gen. Grant quite as readily as they would any man who filled the office twice already, but they are uncompromisingly opposed to a third term in any shape. Altogether it is safe to say, that while there are a great many zealous, earnest and hard-working Republicans who would labor most strenuously to secure Gen. Grant's election in case he should be nominated, there would also be found a large element which is already crystallized in its opposition to him, because of his course during the eight years in which he occupied the presidential chair. This opposition would be found to be in a more united form against Grant than against any other good man who might be nominated.

HOW NOT TO TAKE COLD.

The London Lancet finds it startling to discover how little is generally known about the commoner forms of disease. For instance, now, "a cold" is but "the result of a sufficient impression of cold to reduce the vital energy of nerve centers presiding over the functions in special organs." "Nature has provided the stimulus of a strong fit of sneezing to rouse the dormant centers and enable them at once to resume work and avoid evil consequences." The Lancet concludes that "the natural indication to ward off the effects of a chill is to restore the nerve centres, and there is no more potent influence to attain this object than a strong and sustained effort of the will. The man who resolves not to take cold seldom does."

PRAERIFUL CHINAMEN.

This paragraph from the New York Tribune will be read with some amusement on this coast:

In the Sunday school of the Reformed Presbyterian church, in Clinton street, Cincinnati, there are twenty-five Chinamen, each of whom is provided with a teacher. At the recent Christmas festival of the school they gave their teachers the Lord's prayer printed in the Chinese tongue and neatly framed, and in every Chinese laundry in the city the prayer may now be found on the wall. The Chinamen say they repeat it every night. The owner of one of the laundries has been trying to induce his customers to call for their clothes Saturday night instead of Sunday morning, but he has had some difficulty in doing so. Nearly all the laundries have adopted the plan of closing on Sunday noon in order to attend afternoon service.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

At Tutt's bar, on the American river, at the base of the Sierra Nevada, the skeleton of a whale has lately been found. It has been forwarded to the Academy of Sciences at San Francisco. There was a time when the waves of the Pacific lashed the Sierra, and the valleys of California were deeply submerged beneath the sea. It was then that the monster of the deep, whose bones have just been discovered, met his death from causes unknown, and was deposited by the sea in the spot where the remains were found.

The Argonaut asserts that "the prettiest girl" who attracted Mrs. Grant's attention in Reno was from San Francisco, on her way to Virginia City. A Philadelphia paper stated that she came from Bodie. But the truth is that the girl is a permanent resident of Reno. Her name may yet be engraved on somebody's death bed, but at present it remains a profound secret.

Gil Allen, formerly general ticket agent of the V. & T. R. R., has suddenly discovered somewhere in his inner consciousness a decided talent for newspaper work. His letters to the Enterprise are both exact in detail and entertaining in composition. His notes in the Tribune make the Sacramento Bee man sharpen his stick.

In the path of totality of the eclipse last Sunday, the weather was favorable, and valuable scientific observations were undoubtly made. Prof. Davidson's report will be looked for with exceeding interest by the astronomical world.

Boruck's Spirit of the Times last Saturday contained an interesting editorial under the caption of "Do Fish Hear." We read it with great pleasure, for it was stolen from the GAZETTE. Boruck is displaying excellent taste in his conveyances, of late.

Emperor Norton's death is the cause of a great deal of sentiment in San Francisco. The Chronicle publishes an original poem, and nearly all the papers have had columns upon the subject.

Frank Leslie, the well-known publisher, is dead.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

The groceries of Virginia City were all closed last Sunday.

A Virginia City alderman runs a faro game in Sutro on pay days.

The Sunday closing law is in force in Livermore, Cal., and offenders have been fined.

P. A. Humbert has been appointed Superintendent of the Bullion mine, and is now in charge.

Twenty-one hundred tons of ice have been stored away by the Tunnel Company during the past two weeks.

During the year 1879 the town of Sutro paid into the state and Lyon county treasuries nearly $9000 as taxes, licenses, etc.

Miss Chrisman, of Yamhill county, Oregon, took poison a few days ago because her father scolded her for attending a Christmas ball. Assistance arrived in time to save her life.

The Safety Committee of Ione City, Amador county, are determined to tar and feather the first tramp caught committing any depredation within the town limits, and ride him out on a rail.

Repairs will soon be finished at the head-gate of the Calloway canal, Kern county, when water will be turned in, and the whole desert land portion, which has been prepared, will be submerged.

Says the Portland, O., Standard: "It is the opinion of one of our most thorough 'sheep men,' that if the present weather lasts two weeks longer, Jackson county will lose $50,000 in sheep alone."

Tourtillot won the Sacramento walking match, making 364 miles and 6 laps; Von Berg, 339 miles and 3 laps; Lee, 255 miles; Wiley, 235 miles and 9 laps; Fitzgerald, 193 miles and 2 laps; Grafton, 140 miles; Robinson, 160 miles. The four first named are the winners, and divide the dividends as per original terms.

Carp Propagation.

From the San Francisco Post.

A few weeks ago, B. B. Redding, State Fish Commissioner, being in Washington, took charge of 300 carp, which Dr. Hessel brought from Austria, and safely conveyed them to this city across the continent. The water in which they came was kept at a temperature of from 38 to 50 degrees, and was changed five times on the route. The Baltimore and Ohio railroad gave written instructions to stop the trains when it might be necessary to change the water, and every road from Washington to San Francisco gave free transportion to the fish. Sixty carp were put into the Sacramento, and the remainder in fish ponds in Alameda. Carp will thrive in our inland sloughs; they are a domestic fish, and will live in a common horse trough. They are kept in many parts of Europe for family use.

Coal Oil as a Pain Killer.

Amador Ledger.

The efficacy of coal oil as a pain-killer is not generally known, nevertheless it has curative properties to a remarkable degree. This was illustrated by an incident which happened at the Talis mine a few days ago. On Sunday afternoon a man named John Jones, was sitting in the hoisting works, when a large black spider of the venomous species bit him on the side. It caused great pain, and the resources of the workmen were taxed to suggest means to relieve the sufferer. At length Mr. Green, the engineer, got some coal oil and applied it to the affected part when the pain ceased almost instantly, and no trouble has since been experienced from the bite.

Mr. Smith was running to catch a midnight train at Gallatin, Mo. Watchman Snyder mistook him for a fleeing burglar and gave chase, crying "stop thief—if you don't stop I'll shoot." Mr Smith heard the whistle of the approaching train, and sped on faster than ever, until a bullet from the officer's pistol entered one of his legs, bringing him to the ground.

A bridegroom was belated at Rochester, and the time appointed for the wedding was over before he arrived in the city. In order not to miss the train on which the pair were to start on their honeymoon tour, the bride and her friends met him at the station, and the ceremony was performed hurriedly on the platform.

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A woman with a red petticoat walking on the Boston and Maine R. R. track, was so much like a danger signal that a distant engineer stopped his train.

Five thousand dollars is offered by the American Humane Society of Chicago for a stock car in which live animals can be carried long distances without needless suffering.

Finding a basket on her stoop, a cautious woman in Newport, R. I., took it to a police station and was surprised to learn afterward that it contained a twenty pound turkey and nota foundling.

In Norfolk, England, last month, two men seized and killed a stag which had taken refuge in a barn from be hounds, and drove away with it, passing huntsmen and hounds. They were afterward fined.

A one-legged man of Tallahatchie, Miss, rented eighteen acres of land last year and gathered forty bales of cotton from it. His name is Thomas McCinney, ex-treasurer of the county. He did nearly all the work himself.

A St. Louis woman amused herself with a revolver as she remarked to a companion, "Give me a pinch of snuff or I'll blow a hole clean through you." The snuff was refused, and the hole was promptly made by a bullet, with almost fatal effect.

It is fashionable in Massachusetts this winter, to ride in the oldest sleighs that can be obtained. A wealthy Pittsfield man proudly uses one that is over a hundred years old as to body, while the leather wings of the dashboard are more ancient by half a century.

As Happy as a Big Sun Flower.

Bill just look at this bundle. Well I should smile, the bundle is bigger than yourself. Ha ha ha, but the best joke of all is, the whole business cost me only $7 00. Attention!

The greatest wonder yet discovered in medicine is Mrs. S. Howe's Celebrated, Neuralgia and Toothache cure. Would you rather endure the pain of having a tooth drawn than buy a bottle of Mrs. Dr. Howe's toothache medicine, that will stop the pain and save the tooth. Mothers should not be without it for their infants. A few drops in a little warm water to swab a teething baby's mouth will instantly relieve the little sufferer. The medicine does not cauterize and is very pleasant. Sold by all druggists jan6

Mining Contract.

Adam Welter yesterday let a contract for the sinking of the North Carson mine in Palmyra district. The shaft which is now down 75 feet, is to be sunk 50 feet further at $6 per foot.

The North Rapidan mine is taking out good ore.

A CRUEL DECEPTION

Practiced Upon an Amiable and Worthy Citizen of Reno.

Some one played a most reprehensible trick yesterday upon a well known and estimable druggist of Reno, whose good nature is only equaled by his sensitiveness. Returning from dinner last evening he found a note on his counter, in a lady's handwriting, requesting the pleasure of his company at the Leap Year Party. The note bore the signature of a lady with whom he was well acquainted, and stated that she would call for him at 9 o'clock. The delighted druggist at once proceeded to array himself suitably for the occasion, and soon, faultlessly dressed, was awaiting the arrival of his fair partner. She did not come. The gentleman's indignation was naturally and properly excited by the outrage which had been perpetrated upon his feelings, and suspecting that Roger Johnson was the author of the dastardly hoax, he swore vengance against him. Mr. Johnson, who, it is needless to say, is incapable of committing such an enormity, had no knowledge of the danger he was in when he entered the drug store this morning, with the intention of making some trifling purchase. But he realized his situation when the senior proprietor sprang at him with a hatchet in one hand and a gallon bottle of asafetida in the other, demanding an apology. Mr Johnson was fortunately able to prove "an alibi" and so escaped uninjured.

The victim of this cruel and heartless job is said to be in great mental distress. It is to be hoped that the author of the outrage will be ferreted out and punished as he deserves.

The Theatre To-Night.

The Nellie Boyd Dramatic company give their first performance in Reno, at the Nevada Theatre this evening. The play will be "Fanchon, the Cricket," in which Maggie Mitchell made such a reputation. Miss Boyd, it is said, is the next best "Fanchon" in the United States. The "Shadow Dance" in this play gives her an opportunity to display her singularly graceful dancing. Nellie Boyd has been known for years as an accomplished and versatile actress, and a first-rate entertainment may be confidently expected for this evening.

Says the Winnemucca Silver State, in reference to this company: "The words of the actors were frequently drowned by the uproarious applause of the audience. Many were deterred from going to the hall by the inclemency of the weather, and missed one of the best entertainments ever given in Winnemucca."

District Court—King, S. D.

The following have been the proceedings since yesterday's report:

A. F. & A. Kenny vs. Barnes & Shaber—motion in regard to funds. Set for Jany. 15.

Shoemaker & Haydon vs. A. J. Hatch—plaintiffs allowed five days more time to amend complaint.

Barnett & Bro. vs. G. B. Hill—jury found verdict for plaintiffs in the sum of $154 50. Jury paid $72 by plaintiffs. Defendant granted stay of five days.

A. Charlebois vs. James Mayberry—Jury sworn in. Case continued till Jany. 16.

The court adjourned untill 7:30 this evening, when the case of Jane Lake vs. M. C. Lake will be resumed.

A Bad Investment.

Yesterday afternoon a young man ran up a bill of $1 75 in Pechner's barber shop. The items were: hair cutting, 50, shaving, 25, shampooing, 50, dyeing moustache, 50. After a settlement with Pechner, he announced his intention of attending the Leap Year party, and when informed that it was an invitation affair, he said he was sorry he had not saved his money for whiskey.

A Marriage This Evening.

The marriage of John H. Hepworth, of Como, to Lucy S. Horton, of Reno, will take place this evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the Rev. W. R. Jenvey. The pair leave to-morrow for Como. Mr. Hepworth is an esteemed correspondent of the GAZETTE, and frequently furnishes valuable news. May his matrimonial venture bring him all the happiness he deserves.

Drawing Lessons.

Attention is called to the advertisement of T. F. Laycock which appears in another column. Mr. Laycock has done a great deal of fine work, and is fully competent to impart instruction in drawing, which is one of the most useful of the accomplishments. It is convenient for business men as well as those who are fond of art for its own sake.

A Large Sale

The Silver State says that J. J. Stevenson & Son have sold their cattle and ranches, on King river in the Northern part of Humboldt county, to General Isaac Coe, of Omaha. There were about 6,000 head of cattle included in the sale, and the price paid was $51,000. General Coe intends to engage extensively in the cattle business in that county.

Personals.

The Nellie Boyd Dramatic Company arrived from Winnemucca last night.

E. Garber, late with Davidson, the jeweler, left last night for Elko, where he will engage in the same business.

O. H. Perry, step son of R. V. Borden, returned on the overland last night from Texas, where he has been to look after his land.

THE LEAP YEAR DANCE.

Who Attended the Party Last Evening.

The Leap Year party last night was a great success. It was attended by ——couple, as many as could comfortably dance together in Winchel & Cuningham's hall. The party was exclusively for the young and unmarried, and only two or three married couples were present, they being admitted because they had but recently taken the fatal plunge. The affair was under the direction of a committee of young ladies, and was well-managed. Several law offices in the front of the building were serviceable as dressing rooms, and supper was spread in a vacant store on the ground floor.

The Leap Year party was not intended to be a full dress ball, but was planned as a social, informal dance. The ladies, accordingly, did not indulge in very elaborate toilets, and not a claw hammer was visible throughout the evening. Dancing commenced about half past nine and was kept up until 2 o'clock, with an intermission for supper.

Early in the evening the following rules were read.

1. No gentleman shall ask a lady to dance. The ladies alone have the right to give invitations.

2. No gentleman shall cross the floor or walk about the hall without a lady escort.

3. No gentleman shall dance more than three times with the same lady.

4. No gentleman shall leave the room without permission from the lady attending him.

5. The penalty for the violation of any of these rules shall be the G. B.

The "G. B." was variously interpreted to mean the "go by," the "good-bye," the "grand bounce," and the "Grant boom." The latter form of mental abberation would have been rather too severe a punishment for a mild offence. As none of the rules were transgressed, the gentlemen remained in the dark as to the exact nature of the penalty. The fear of the mysterious "G. B." kept them in wholesome awe of the management.

It was the intention of the committee to invite all the young ladies of their acquaintance, but unfortunately one was missed, although a carriage called for her last evening. It is scarcely possible to avoid overlooking some one in getting up such an entertainment.

The young ladies return thanks to Messrs Sunderland, Evans, Waldo & Julien for the use of their apartments.

The following are the names of the ladies and gentlemen present:

A PRACTICAL JOKE.

Wadsworth Boys Initiate Softy Youth.

Deputy Sheriff, Lewis, who keeps a bar, has been honored for the last few weeks by a visit from George Todd, a relative from Sacramento. Last Thursday, a man named Prentiss, better known as Crooks, a very original genius, got up a scheme to steamboat the Sacramento boy. After a careful prearrangement, Crooks stepped up to the bar, where Todd was "clerking" in Jake's absence, and ordered the drinks, at the same time addressing one of the boys as stranger, and asking him up. The liquor swallowed, he laid down two nickels. Todd called for two bits, but got only

A RUFFIANLY REPLY.

When Crooks went out bystanders told Todd that he was a desperado from Texas, and that a reward was out for his arrest. In a few minutes Crooks came in and hid some clothes in a room opening out of the bar-room. Humphreys and George made a bet that he had stolen the clothes. Arnstein now came in and said some one had stolen some underclothes from him, and he identified those hidden by Crooks as his. Crooks came in and he and Arnstein had a terrible quarrel over the matter. Crooks took another drink, and this time paid nothing. John George now came in and showed a photograph of Crooks and a letter on the back from Sheriff Walker, saying that $1500 would be paid for the arrest of Prentiss alias Crooks. Humphrey, George and Todd planned the capture of Crooks and agreed to divide the reward. "Dutch Ike," warns Todd that the desperado will

SHOOT AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE.

About 10 o'clock a crowd had gathered and Crooks walks in and calls for a drink. The Sacramento boy showed terrible excitement. He felt that he must represent the absent deputy sheriff and maintain the law, at the same time take in the $500. George and Humphrey arrest Crooks and throw him on the floor, Gladding stands over the prisoner to keep off the mob. Todd undertakes to handcuff the ruffian, who gets out his revolver, loaded only with powder, and tries to fire it at Todd who, in the struggle, shows much real daring. After a sharp and exciting battle, the handcuffs are secured and the procession starts for the lock-up when Crooks breaks loose and escapes. Todd abuses his deputies roundly for carelessness. They lay it on Jack Perry and one or two threw him down and pretend to beat him. Just then Crooks came in amid a general laugh and hand-shake. Greeny tumbled and set up the drinks on condition that his Sacramento friends never hear of it. SOULE.

The Word "Sozodont."

Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and is composed of two words, Soze and Odontes. "Soze" translated, means to preserve, and "Odontes" the teeth—"SOZODONT" a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, hardens and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it. It is as harmless as water. Sold by druggists and perfumers.

JEWELRY

$75.00 worth for $15.00,
—(AND A)—
Solid Abyssinian Gold Watch
FREE! FREE!! FREE!!!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1875, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Auction lots of Jewelry and Watches often buying at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heaviest dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new goods which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts. we will send you, POSTPAID, any article to the value of $2 50; on receipt of $1, articles to the value of $5, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

THE DAILY

GAZETTE!

The Cheapest Paper in Nevada!

Is the largest daily on the Pacific railroads, and contains more home news than any paper in the State. To any one who is interested in stock raising, agricultural pursuits, or mining in western Nevada, the Evening Gazette would be worth thrice the money. The Gazette will be in the future, as in the past, devoted to spreading information of the resources of Washoe county first, and of the whole great interior basin next. Its mineral wealth, agricultural possibilities and manufacturing capacity are almost unknown and furnish matter for the live journalist, second to no part of this coast.

THE DAILY GAZETTE

Will be sent to any address for the Low Price of

SIX DOLLARS PER YEAR!

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the alter of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $5. Call or address
